Mattapoisett Yacht Club

In the third race held at the Mattapoisett Yacht Club in the June Series, there were eight starters, with Beetle Cats participating for the first time this season.

The winners in the three classes were: Susan McGowan in Gryphon, handicap class; Harvey Pentleton, skippering Instead, Corinthians; John Ross in Happy Too, Beetle Cats.

Sailing conditions again this week combined clear skies and gusty changeable winds.

The three boats in the handicap class sailed a 7.1 mile course from Ned's Point MYC guide buoy to Molly's Cove MYC guide buoy, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy to Angelica Red Nun 2, back to Molly's Cove MYC guide buoy and finish.

Harvey Pentleton, skippering Instead, led the three-boat Corinthian fleet throughout the first three legs of the course. On rounding Angelica Red Nun 2, Instead slowed up momentarily by a fouled mainsheet, was then only three boat lengths ahead of Arthur Blackburn's Lorelei which in turn was followed two boat lengths by George Fisher's Cloud Nine. Instead, however, maintained the lead to the finish with Blackburn's Lorelei second, and Fisher's Cloud Nine, third.

What's Right with America?

Editorial

It's easy to see our mistakes. They fill our 21-inch screens to the saturation point. The electronic beam etches our dark shadows into millions of minds viewing the pictures that TV powers have determined to represent as the United States. Are they true pictures? Well, they do happen. They just don't represent what's happening in our country.

To see what's really going on, you need to look around and view the evidence of your own eyes. Take Mattapoisett for an example. Last week, Shipyard Park was marched on by determined demonstrators who occupied it peacefully. They then proceeded to make speeches - not one of which was of interest to the electronic eye of TV. This Flag Day demonstration was of interest to a large group of adults who appeared in person. What they heard were some very excellent essays on the symbolism of our Flag. This is the future of America.

Saturday, one week later, Lions Club members worked hard to bring together donated objects which had been gathered in weeks of effort. The auction that followed was attended by the donators and others who had a wonderful day buying back the treasures. Each participant went home happy. Who went home rich? The town - we, the people, went home rich. The result of this effort by the Lions members, by the Woman's Club, by those who gave and those who bought will be a new bandstand to be enjoyed by all. This is America. This spirit is not unique here. It happens in towns and cities all over the country. It is of no interest to TV, because it is so normal. Only destruction has the violent action that makes sensational shadows. Building something is quiet, hard work. It's not sensational but it's satisfying.

of the noise and the faulty P. A. system. Let me at this point state that if it were not for the young girls' parading and passing out literature and becoming involved in Convention activities, it would indeed have been boring. I wish to commend them on their lady-like and efficient performance of their duties. They indeed restored an individual's faith in American youth. During the early evening Friday there was a bad electrical and rainstorm, but there was so much noise in "Hick's Cage" that none on Friday was the nomination of Senator Kennedy by acclamation which created enthusiasm and loud approval. This was increased with the appearance of Mrs. Joan Kennedy. Chairman Bartley then proceeded to poll the delegates for the election of the constitutional offices with the exception of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, by acclamation. Saturday morning the Lieutenant Governor's race proceeded according to form and after complete polling with few requests for polling the delegation, Chairman Bartley, a most proficient convention chairman, called for an 11-minute recess to save about 4 1/2 hours of continued polling. He called in all candidates for Lieutenant Governor and led by Senator Beryl Cohen, they all withdrew and conceded the victory to Candidate Dukakis. At the termination of the conference and in accordance with parliamentary ruling, he had Democratic State Committee Chairman, David Harrison, rule and announce the winner, Candidate Dukakis which terminated the Convention. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

In regards to last week's "Letter to the Editor", signed by one Richard Helfand.

On June 1st a complaint was issued to me through the Control Center in regards to the "dog bite" as reported by Richard Helfand. Upon receiving information from the officer on duty as to the owner of this dog, I immediately called the owner. On my recommendation, the dog was taken on June 2nd to the New Bedford Animal Rescue League for ten days' observation, and thereafter to be disposed of. This complaint was justly acted on by all concerned.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

We would like to express our thanks and deep appreciation to the Mattapoisett Fire Department. If there are any doubts in the minds of the residents of this town as to the efficiency of a volunteer fire department, we would like to dispel those doubts right now.

These dedicated men were called out of bed at 3:25 A.M. Due to their quick response our house was saved. They also spent considerable time and effort with oxygen to revive one of our dogs. Thanks to them, she now has a chance to live, although it was too late to save the other pet.

Again we say: Thank you to the Mattapoisett Fire Department.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To all of the people who donated articles to the auction last Saturday at Shipyard Park; to the hundreds who attended; to all of the ladies who contributed sandwiches and pastry and to all who worked to make it the outstanding success that it was, the members of the Mattapoisett Lions Club are eternally grateful. The auction brings our new bandstand closer to reality.

GRANGE ELECTS OFFICERS

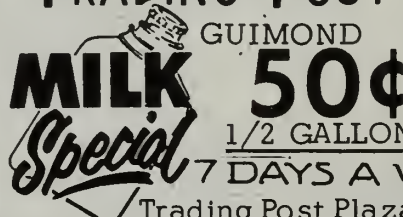

Mrs. Herbert LaFleur (Susan Bence) was elected master to serve the year of 1971 of Mattapoisett Grange. Those elected to serve with her are: Mark Harris, overseer; Mildred LeBaron, lecturer; Mark Breton, steward; Katherine Buckley, assistant steward; Mary Bumpus, lady assistant steward; Doris Fearing, chaplain; Christine Bence, secretary; William Smith, gatekeeper; Marjorie Smith, Ceres; Edith Johansen, Pomona; Ruby Barber, Flora; Otto Kellish, member of the executive committee; Doris Fearing, matron of the Junior Grange. A pianist and treasurer will be elected at the next regular meeting.

A letter was read from the State Master, Wesley Thayer, complimenting the Grange on its fine work and a membership of so many young people. The Grange scored 95.5 on its work.

Dale Fearing, Home and Community Service, was one of the June graduates from Old Rochester Regional High School, and was presented a gift from the officers and members of the Grange. The presentation was by the master, Mildred LeBaron, who complimented Dale, wishing him the best in his future as a college student.

UNFAIR TO OBJECTORS - Editorial

The recent Supreme Court decision exempting atheistic conscientious objectors from military duty is a help to our fighting men. It will remove some cowards from the combat teams and thus save lives. I question its fairness to the young men exempted. They may now be under the influence of stronger personalities and later outgrow this guidance to find themselves under a lifelong stigma.

In World War II, volunteer Conscientious Objectors served with valor in medic teams. Certainly this alternative could be offered to the genuine C. O. who could have no qualms about the saving of lives. For the less valiant, there are many jobs. Women have taken over in the clerical field but it takes hundreds of men to supply and support one combat soldier. Soldiers drive trucks, build bridges, carry ammunition, clear mine fields, unload ships, cook food. There are scores of jobs available that never require a soldier to fire a gun.

Exemption on conscientious objector grounds is not a valid excuse. It is just another easy out for shirkers who will have to be protected, and carried, as a burden on the backs of others, all their lives. Unless, of course, they are made to serve in C. O. teams. The armed forces could arrange non-combatant jobs for C. O.s so they could serve with no damage to conscience. Who knows. For many of them

AND THE BEAT GOES ON!

Saturday after Saturday, and on other days too, a small army of twenty or more volunteers have been working faithfully to restore the exterior finish of the First Congregational Church of Rochester Center. The high towering steeple was a problem and called for high reaching equipment. All special equipment and labor has been donated. Now nearing completion, the Paint Committee estimates that a $3800 job is now being realized and the actual cost is for materials only. The committee members are: D. Lawrence Hartley, Gerald Smith, William Morley, Ernest Davoll and the Rev. Edward F. White, chairman.
